Alexander Mariaca is a trainee attorney at Walder Wyss in Geneva.

Alexander Mariaca studied at the University of Fribourg, where he earned a Bachelor of Laws (BLaw 2023) and a Master of Laws (MLaw 2025), with specializations in “Economics” and “Sanctions.” He subsequently earned a Certificate of Specialization in the Legal Profession from the University of Geneva (ECAV 2026). As part of his education, he also earned two CAS certificates, in Immigration Law and in Asylum Procedures.

Alexander Mariaca joined Walder Wyss in 2024 for a summer internship, before working there as a paralegal while continuing his studies. Prior to that, he worked for an independent attorney in Fribourg and completed a short-term internship at another renowned law firm in Fribourg.

During his studies, Alexander Mariaca was also involved with several organizations active in the defense of human rights.

He works in French, English, and Spanish. He is registered in the Geneva cantonal registry of trainee attorneys.
