Clarisse Sorlat is a trainee lawyer at Walder Wyss in Geneva.

She holds a double Bachelor's degree in law, one in Swiss law (University of Fribourg, 2018) and the other in French law (University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2018).

She then continued her studies with a double Master's degree in Swiss and French law, specializing in the fields of tax law and business law (University of Fribourg and University of Paris II, 2020). Keen to develop her expertise, she acquired a double specialization in intellectual, industrial and artistic property law with a second Master's degree (Université Paris XII, 2021).

She also obtained a certificate in art market law from Christie's Education London in 2022.

Before joining Walder Wyss in 2024, Clarisse Sorlat first worked as a legal counsel for an audiovisual company in Paris, then in the Intellectual Property department of a multinational in Vevey.

Clarisse Sorlat advises her clients mainly in French and English, but also has knowledge of Spanish, Italian and German.

She is a member of the Geneva cantonal register of trainee lawyers.
