Philippe Kohler

Philippe Kohler is a senior associate in our Private Clients and Banking & Finance teams. His expertise includes succession and family law and immigration. He regularly advises international high-net-worth individuals on asset holding structures, estate planning, relocation and philanthropy. His main fields also include financial products and services, including regulatory aspects, as well as corporate and commercial matters.

Philippe Kohler graduated in 2013 from the University of Geneva, where he obtained a Master in economic Law (MLaw). He was admitted to the Geneva Bar in October 2016, ranked top of his class. Before joining Walder Wyss he performed his attorney traineeship in a leading business law firm in Geneva.

Philippe Kohler's professional languages are French and English. Philippe Kohler is registered with the Geneva bar and is admitted to practice before all Swiss courts.
