Lisa Brunner

Lisa Brunner works as an associate in the Real Estate team. Her areas of expertise include public and private real estate law, construction law, tenancy law and contract law. She advises and represents Swiss and foreign clients, individuals and companies in court.

Lisa Brunner studied at the University of Fribourg where she obtained a Bachelor of Law (BLaw 2017) and a Master of Law (MLaw 2020, summa cum laude). She also spent a semester at the Center for transnational legal studies in London (Georgetown University). She then obtained the Certificate of Advanced Legal Studies (Ecole d'avocature) at the University of Geneva (2020) and successfully sat the Geneva Bar Exam in March 2022. Before joining Walder Wyss in January 2023, Lisa Brunner practiced in another Swiss law firm and was active in the field of tax law.

Lisa Brunner works mainly in French and English. She also has a good command of German and has good knowledge of Spanish. She is registered with the Geneva bar and is permitted to practice before all Swiss courts.
