Sandrine Chabbey is a senior associate in the Banking & Finance Team at Walder Wyss. She advises banks, financial institutions, financial infrastructures, FinTech as well as companies in the DLT/blockchain space on all aspects of banking, finance and capital market regulation.

She studied law and international relations in Geneva, Zurich, Singapore and Seoul, graduating with a Master of Law in 2019 and being admitted to the bar in 2020. Before joining Walder Wyss, she worked as an associate in the banking and finance team at another leading Zurich law firm, and as a policy advisor at the State Secretariat for International Finance (SIF), where she focused on financial market infrastructures and innovation in the financial sector, including the use of DLT and the regulation of cryptoassets.

She advises clients in English, French and German.
