Fabienne Früh is an attorney in the Litigation and Arbitration Team. She provides advice in commercial disputes and represents parties in both national and international arbitration proceedings, before state courts as well as in enforcement proceedings and mutual legal assistance matters. Her practice also includes advising and assisting individuals and legal entities in internal investigations and related criminal, administrative, and civil proceedings.

Fabienne Früh studied at the University of Zurich (BLaw 2018, MLaw 2020) and King's College London (LL.M. 2020). Before joining Walder Wyss, she worked as a trainee lawyer at a Zurich business law firm and as a law clerk and chair of the conciliation authority for tenancy and lease matters at the District Court of Uster. She was admitted to the bar in 2025.

Fabienne Früh practices in German and English. She is registered with the Zurich Bar Registry and admitted to practice before all Swiss courts.
