Isabelle Hanselmann

Isabelle Hanselmann is Attorney at Law in the Zurich office of Walder Wyss. She advises companies, private individuals and public sector clients on all aspects of public and administrative law with a particular focus on public construction, environmental and data protection law as well as healthcare law. She advises and represents clients both in courts and before administrative bodies.

She studied law at the University of St. Gallen (M.A. HSG in Law and Economics, 2012). She was admitted to the bar in 2016. Prior to joining Walder Wyss, she worked as an Attorney at Law in a Zurich law firm specialized in construction and procurement law and as a legal counsel in an internationally operating space company. Amongst others, Isabelle Hanselmann gathered further practical experiences as a trainee at the district court of Weinfelden, the administrative court of Thurgau and as a court clerk for the tax appeals committee of Thurgau.

Isabelle Hanselmann's professional languages are German and English. She also speaks French and has basic knowledge in Chinese. She is registered with the Zurich Bar Registry and admitted to practice in all Switzerland.
