Marion Bähler is a partner in our Corporate/M&A Team. Her preferred areas of practice include M&A, corporate, contract, stock exchange and capital market law. One focus of her work is on private equity and venture capital transactions. She regularly advises start-ups and investors on the entire range of venture capital aspects, including financing rounds, acquisitions, participation plans (ESOPs) and exits. She further advises companies on general corporate law matters, corporate governance and other legal issues surrounding their daily business.

Born in 1987, Marion Bähler studied at the University of Berne and UC Berkeley, School of Law. Before joining Walder Wyss, Marion Bähler worked as an intern at the Administrative Court of the Canton of Bern and as a lawyer in a leading Swiss business law firm in Zurich. She is registered with the Zurich Bar Registry and admitted to practice in all of Switzerland.

Her professional languages are German and English. She also speaks French.
