Sabrina Zimmermann

Sabrina Zimmermann is a member of the Private Clients Team. She advises private clients and family offices from Switzerland and abroad on inheritance and asset law issues, including estate planning and settlement, and represents clients in inheritance disputes. In addition, she assists clients in relocation, asset structuring, trust and foundation matters.

Born in 1986, Sabrina Zimmermann studied law at the University of Fribourg (MLaw 2011), obtained the admission to the bar in the canton of Basel-Stadt (2014) and holds a LL.M in corporate and finance law (HKU 2019). Prior to joining Walder Wyss, she worked for several years for a major Zurich law firm (2015-2023).

Sabrina Zimmermann practices in German and English and also speaks French and Spanish. She is admitted to practice in all Swiss courts.
