Sebastian Suter is an attorney in the Labor Law, Compensation, Mobility & Social Security team at Walder Wyss. He advises clients on both litigious and non-litigious matters in all areas related to employment.

Sebastian studied law at the University of Zurich (MLaw 2021) and completed an exchange semester at Northwestern Pritzker School of Law in Chicago. Before joining Walder Wyss as an attorney, he worked as a legal clerk at a commercial law firm in Zurich, as an ad hoc court clerk at the High Court of the Canton of Graubünden, and as an auditor, court clerk, and chair of the conciliation board for rental and lease matters at the Horgen District Court.

In addition to his work as an attorney, Sebastian Suter serves as a part-time alternate judge at the Horgen District Court, where he hears civil and criminal cases.

He was admitted to the bar in the Canton of Zurich in 2025.

Sebastian Suter works in German and English.
