Daniel Ferreira Colaço works as an associate, predominantly in the Employment Law Team of Walder Wyss in Geneva. He advises and represents our clients in litigation matters.

Daniel Ferreira Colaço studied at the University of Geneva where he obtained a Bachelor of Law (2018) and a Master of Law (2020). He then obtained the Certificate of Advanced Legal Studies (Ecole d'avocature) at the University of Geneva (2020) and successfully sat the Geneva Bar Exam in March 2023. Before joining Walder Wyss in October 2023, Daniel Ferreira Colaço practised in two other Geneva law firms active in the field of litigation, in particular in criminal, civil and commercial law.

Daniel Ferreira Colaço primarily advises clients in French and English. He also speaks Portuguese and has a good command of Spanish. He is registered with the Bar Register of the Canton of Geneva and is admitted to practice throughout Switzerland.
