Paul Brasey is an associate active in the Litigation, Real Estate and Construction, Banking and Finance, Commercial Contracts and Insolvency, as in White Collar Crime and Investigations practice areas.

He practices in both litigation and advisory work, representing Swiss and international clients in civil, criminal and administrative proceedings.

Paul Brasey completed his studies at the University of Geneva, where he obtained a Bachelor of Law (BLaw, 2016), a Certificate in Transnational Law (2019) and a Master of Law (MLaw, 2020), with honours. He then worked as legal trainee for the Office of the Attorney General of Switzerland (OAG) in Bern and completed his attorney's internship in a leading Swiss law firm. Paul Brasey has been admitted to the Bar in 2023, prior to joining Walder Wyss.

Paul Brasey works mainly in French and English. He is registered with the Vaud Bar Registry and admitted to practice in all Switzerland.
