Quentin Thorens works as an associate in the Employment Law and in the Private Clients Teams of Walder Wyss in Geneva. He advises and represents our clients in litigation matters, in particular in employment and estate disputes. Quentin Thorens also specializes in asset recovery procedures.

Quentin Thorens studied at the University of Fribourg where he obtained a Bachelor of Law (2018) and a Master of Law (2020). As part of his master's degree, he studied at the University of Vienna. He then obtained the Certificate of Advanced Legal Studies (Ecole d'avocature) at the University of Geneva (2020) and successfully sat the Geneva Bar Exam in March 2022. In parallel to his studies, Quentin Thorens was a member of a student-held free legal clinic in Fribourg. Before joining Walder Wyss in October 2022, Quentin Thorens practised in two other Geneva law firms active in the field of litigation, in particular in criminal, civil and commercial law.

Quentin Thorens primarily advises clients in French and English and has a good command of German. He is registered with the Bar Register of the Canton of Geneva and is admitted to practice throughout Switzerland.
